Organization information:

College Inn Gourmet Pizza

Our story begins at the first Cottage Inn restaurant, which opened its doors at 512 East William, Ann Arbor in 1948. This restaurant carries the unique distinction of being the first restaurant in Ann Arbor to serve pizza. The current ownership acquired the building at 512 E. William in 1961 and it remains the company's flagship store today. The restaurant's first major expansion took place in 1975. It was remodeled again in 1980, 1987, and 1993, when a major renovation of the restaurant added a second floor, which allowed for increased seating capacity and banquet room facilities. The Cottage Inn restaurant offers a diverse menu of Italian and Greek dishes, as well as the famous pizzas that made Cottage Inn who we are today. Needless to say, we continue to serve some of the best food in town.

Organization information:
Lumity
Sara Palmer Hussey (PhD), Lumity creator, research scientist and Cambridge University graduate, was moved to solve the age-old question: How can we grow older and wiser, yet retain the energy and radiant skin of our youth? Is it possible to blossom and thrive as we mature? Fusing biology, her academic forte, with her own realistic vantage point as a mother and multi-tasking hyphenate, Sara captured the full scope of the issue: The demands of modern life pull us in all directions and our nutritional choices often suffer as we live on the go; we endure insufficient sleep as we bear and care for others and our rich, full lives lead to stress overload. Habitually running on empty while relying on caffeine or sugar ultimately catches up with us in the form of accelerated aging, constant tiredness and a weak immune system.

Foster Youth Pursuing College Education

Deadline: Not specified
Scholarship Amount: Not specified
Paper application available: No
Online application available: Yes
Scholarship contact information:
  Web: http://www.readysetgrad.org/#

More details:

- Foster youth in Washington may not be aware of unique financial support available to them as they pursue their education.
  - For example, the Passport to College Promise Scholarship assists with higher education costs such as tuition, books, housing, transportation, and some personal expenses.
  - Passport students are eligible for specialized support services.
- The Washington Student Achievement Council (WSAC) and the College Success Foundation are developing an information campaign for Washington's students from foster care.
- This new communications campaign will provide students with information on education planning, financial aid programs for foster youth, and other resources.
- The information will reside on WSAC’s www.ReadySetGrad.org website and will be introduced to college administrators, students, and supporters at the annual Passport to College State Conference in April 2016.

Organization information:

Ready Set Grad
Ready Set Grad helps students earn their high school and postsecondary diplomas. We are your resource to find, pay for, and complete the education path that's right for you or the student in your life. "By 2018, 67% of jobs in Washington State will require a college degree or a career credential. Ready Set Grad is a program to help ensure every student in Washington State has access to the tools, information, and support they need to graduate high school and make college accessible and affordable."

Local Puppy Breeders
At Local Puppy Breeders we encourage everyone to always strongly consider adopting from a local shelter or rescue group. It’s an amazing opportunity to give a dog a second chance and possibly to save their life! However, we also know that adopting isn’t for everyone, and our goal is to help those people find the puppy of their dreams by connecting them with a local breeder.

More details:
1. Paying for college can be tough for anyone. Tuition, room and board, parking, lab fees and other expenses put constant pressure on paychecks and set up students for years of lingering loans.
2. According to the U.S. Department of Education, undergraduate students at four-year institutions paid an average of $13,927 per year for tuition and fees in 2012. For certain segments of the population, however, a number of unique opportunities exist to help defray these costs.
3. Fortune 500s, state governments, advocacy groups and other entities with educational interests offer scholarships to students based on merit, need and/or personal characteristics.
4. Microsoft’s “Blacks at Microsoft Scholarship”, for example, offers qualifying African-American high school seniors up to $5,000 per year to complete their undergraduate education.

OklahomaLawyer.com Annual $1000 Scholarship

Eligibility:
1. Must be a high school senior or college student.
3. Open to all college students.
4. Must be a U.S. citizen living in the U.S. and attending school in the U.S.

Deadline: 7/31/2016

Scholarship Amount: $1000
Paper application available: No
Online application available: Yes

Scholarship contact information:
Web: http://www.oklahomalawyer.com/scholarship/

More details:
1. Create a cover page that contains the following information:
   a. Name
   b. Address
   c. Date of birth
   d. Phone number
   e. Email

2. What school you are attending next semester

3. Type the following honor statement on your cover page and sign your signature:
   a. My essay is my own original work, not copied from another source, and not written by someone other than myself. [Signature]

4. Do not write a “cover letter.” Just include the information listed above on your cover page.

5. Include your cover page, essay and tweet as a single document and save it as a PDF. Make sure all of the information requested above is contained in your single PDF. Remember to tweet your message with this url.

6. Attach your PDF and a photo of yourself and send to scholarship@hasbrooklaw.com. Make sure your photo has your name in the filename. Your email should contain just two attachments: one PDF and one photo.

7. Essay:
   a. Write a 140-word essay. Then, write a 140-character tweet-worthy summary of the essay. Both the essay and tweet will be considered.
   b. The winning essay will be on a topic related to one of Hasbrook & Hasbrook’s nine practice areas. It will be the essay we will be most proud to display on our website, www.OklahomaLawyer.com. Make us proud!

8. Our nine practice areas are personal injury, auto accidents, medical malpractice, dangerous drugs and medical devices, employment law, nursing home abuse, insurance law, car dealership fraud, and product liability. For more information about these practice areas and the kinds of issues we deal with, see our website and our blog.
9. Remember, we represent people who have been injured or harmed; the winning essay will be sympathetic to their point of view.

10. The essay may inform or advocate or both. These are familiar topics that are covered often by the media. The winning essay will not simply rehash what has already been said; it will present something new and/or communicate an idea in a creative way.

11. Don’t be fooled. It is much harder to write a good 140-word essay than to write a good 500-word or 1000-word essay. Make every word count.

12. Judging will be done by members of our law firm. Their final decision will be based on: (1) relevance to one of our practice areas, (2) composition and (3) creativity.

Organization information:
Hasbrook & Hasbrook

At Hasbrook & Hasbrook, we are dedicated to helping our clients recover for their losses. Our practice is focused exclusively on helping individuals, and we pride ourselves on always putting our clients’ interests first. Accredited Schools Online

We're here to help you invest your education dollars wisely. Today's higher education marketplace offers a mind-boggling array of options ranging from community colleges to online PhD programs. As with any industry in a free economy, different institutions offer different levels of quality. Unlike many countries, the U.S. does not have a central ministry of education that oversees all colleges and universities. We do, however, have a government-sanctioned system comprised of independent agencies that provide institutions of higher education with their stamp of approval.

Senior Advice
We created SeniorAdvice.com after my beloved grandmother, Mammaw, began to decline in health and our family was forced to consider transitioning her out of her home and into a senior living facility. The entire process was frustrating, confusing, and often even misleading. At a time when our family was at its most fragile and vulnerable state, we found it exceedingly difficult to understand the myriad of senior care options, let alone how to pay for them.

The Expert Institute
The legal industry has changed - and technology has provided the catalyst for this evolution. Lawyers are adopting new ways of thinking and redefining the most fundamental aspects of how they practice law. The Expert Institute was founded in recognition of this paradigm shift, with the objective of developing a smarter way for attorneys to identify, verify, and retain the best expert witnesses. Every litigator - from AmLaw 100 partners to solo practitioners - relied on outdated and inconsistent methods for finding expert witnesses. We were determined to disrupt this unreliable methodology.
